Directions

From Alford travel north on the A944 (Old Military Road) for approximately 1 mile, after crossing the River Don turn right into Bridge of Alford. Stay on this road and you will find the residential plot on your left hand side. The exact location is shown on the attached Ordnance Survey extract.

Description

Situated in the Howe of Alford, this residential plot within the village of Bridge of Alford provides a fantastic opportunity with views towards the River Don. The site has Planning Permission in Principle for the erection of a dwelling house and garage. Further information can be found on the Aberdeenshire Council planning portal website using the reference code APP/2018/0644 or within the Aberdeen & Northern Estates office.

The popular town of Alford found only 1½ miles away provides a range of local amenities including primary and secondary education at the modern Alford Community Campus which includes swimming pool, sports hall, library & theatre. Alford also has a 'co-op', a range of local shops, pubs and cafes, an 18 hole golf course and is home to the Alford Ski Centre. Other recreational opportunities including the Grampian Transport Museum, Houghton and Murray Country Park and fishing on the River Don.

The Cairngorms National Park can be found to the west and showcases some of the best recreational opportunities and scenery Scotland has to offer.

Aberdeen is only 28 miles east, and provides a wealth of shopping facilities, theatre, two universities, mainline railway station and international airport. Providing excellent transport links south and further afield.
